

THE BADGERHERALD

Staff Page Designer Application: Spring 2010

The Badger Herald is looking for enthusiastic page designers for the Spring 2010 semester

A good page designer would be:

- Interested in newspaper design
- Knowledgeable or willing to learn Adobe InDesign, Photoshop and Illustrator
- Able to work 2-3 evening shifts a week
- Flexible and able to work under a deadline

Some knowledge of Adobe InDesign, Photoshop and Illustrator is a plus, but we are willing to train those who are willing to learn.

Position Description:

As a designer, you would work with writers, editors and photographers to layout the next day's pages. You would be required to work a total of five days every two weeks. When scheduled, you would start sometime between 4 and 5 p.m. and leave when the pages are ready to be sent to the printer, which can be as late as 2 a.m.

Questions for Design Applicants

Please answer the following questions and return an electronic copy along with a résumé to Joey Schroeder and Eric Wiegmann at design@badgerherald.com or return a hard copy, along with a résumé, at The Badger Herald at 326 W. Gorham St. (above Silver Mine Subs).

1. Tell me a little about yourself. (What year in school are you? What is your concentration? Where do you see yourself going over your remaining time in Madison?)
 2. Working at the Badger Herald is a time-consuming commitment. How do you plan to include 2-3 nights per week and probably a certain amount of sleep deprivation into next semester's schedule?
 3. What kind of experience do you have in layout design and how do you think it will benefit you at the Herald?
 4. What if any prior knowledge of Adobe InDesign, Photoshop and Illustrator do you have?
 5. Why shouldn't you be hired?
-

Applications are due as soon as possible, no later than 5 p.m. on Wednesday, December 17, 2009 as interviews will be conducted soon after. Please do not hesitate to e-mail design@badgerherald.com with any questions.

Thank you for applying!